

Flagstaff:

Then and Now

photo possibilities

Flagstaff after the second devastating fire which destroyed the town; boardwalk in foreground is now
San Francisco Street, ca. 1886

Coconino County Courthouse Flagstaff, Arizona, 1893

Coconino County Courthouse Flagstaff, Arizona, ca. 1915

Coconino County Courthouse, Flagstaff, Arizona, ca. 1920

Flagstaff Old Town; the Original Townsite at Old Town Springs, 1882

Old Town Flagstaff, Arizona with spring and railroad, 1884

Flagstaff Public School, 1887

City Meat Market, 1890

O.T. Gillette giving stagecoach rides at Buffalo Park, Flagstaff, Arizona

Al G. Barnes circus elephants walking in parade, ca. 1900

San Francisco and Cherry Street, Flagstaff, Arizona, ca. 1900

The Rotunda at Lowell Observatory, with the Slipher Building to the left, and possibly Percival Lowell's residence to the right, Flagstaff, Arizona].

Riordan Mansion, Flagstaff, Arizona.

Old Main at Northern Arizona Normal School, ca. 1900

Coconino Cycle Club in front of the Arizona Lumber and Timber Company Commissary, ca. 1900

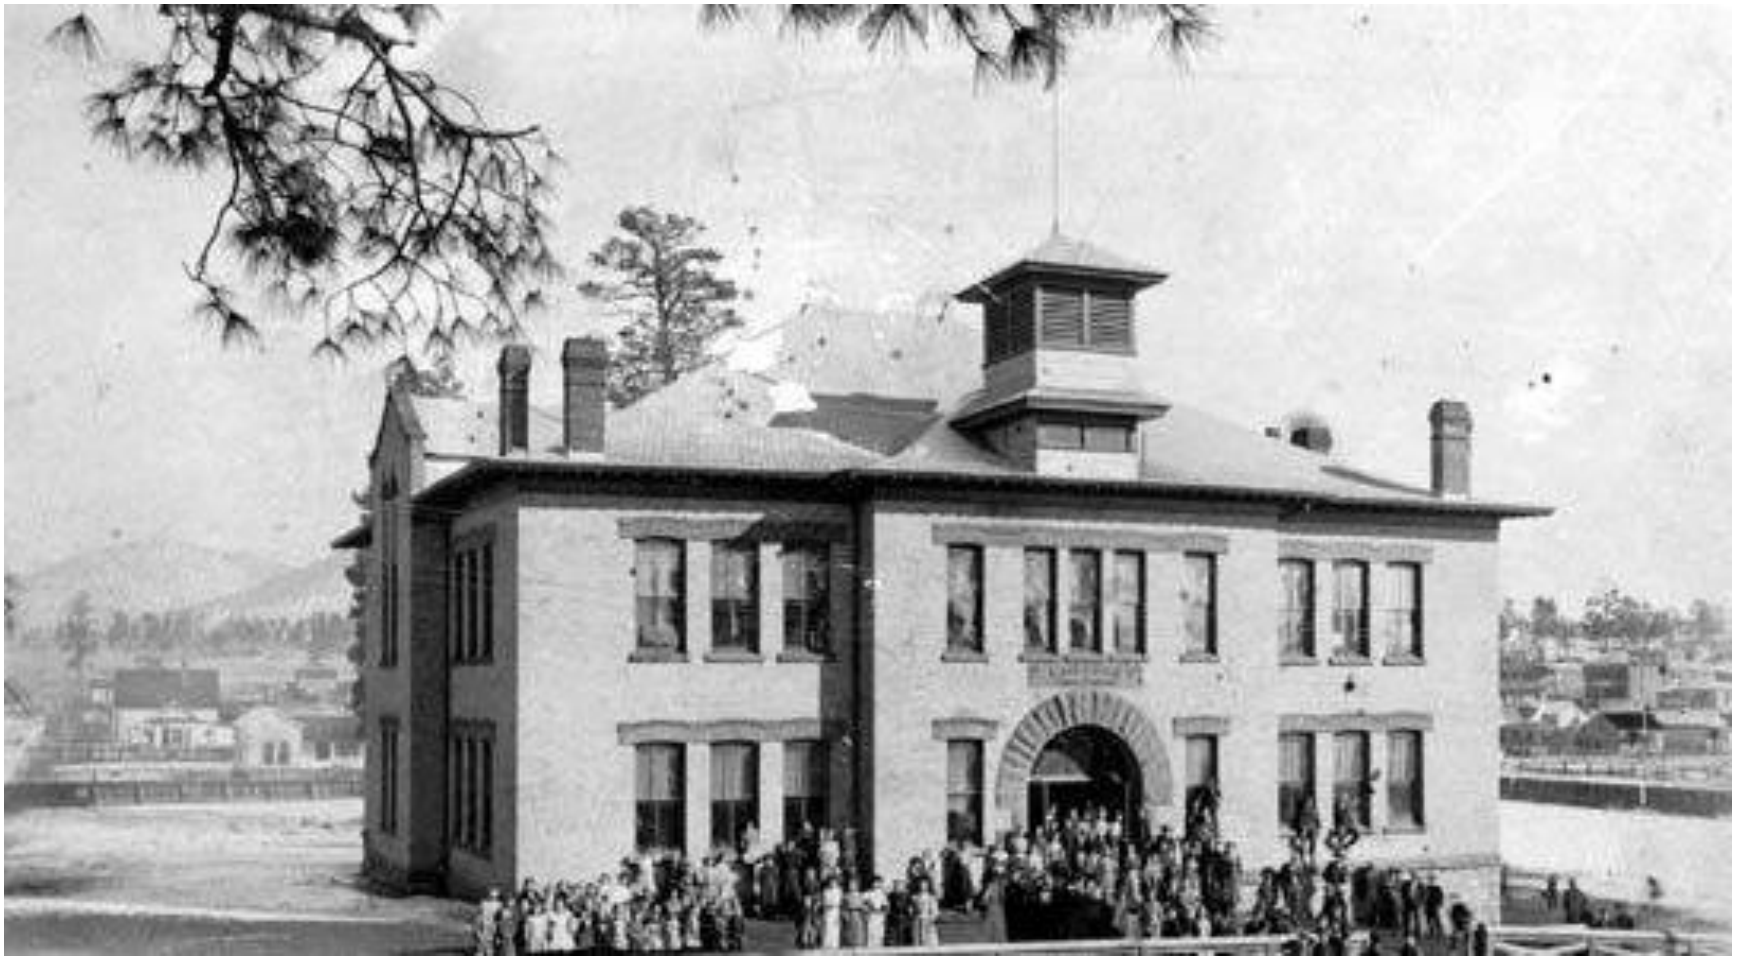

Sun Democrat Building, Flagstaff

Navajo Copper Company bull team on North Agassiz Street, north of Santa Fe Avenue, ca. 1910

Emerson School group portrait, 1911

Elks Club building at corner of Aspen and San Francisco Street. Power Hat Shop and Gassman Cleaning Service also in photograph, ca. 1915

Flagstaff, Arizona Fourth of July parade looking east down Aspen Street with Empress Theater and Coconino Sun Building in view, ca. 1915

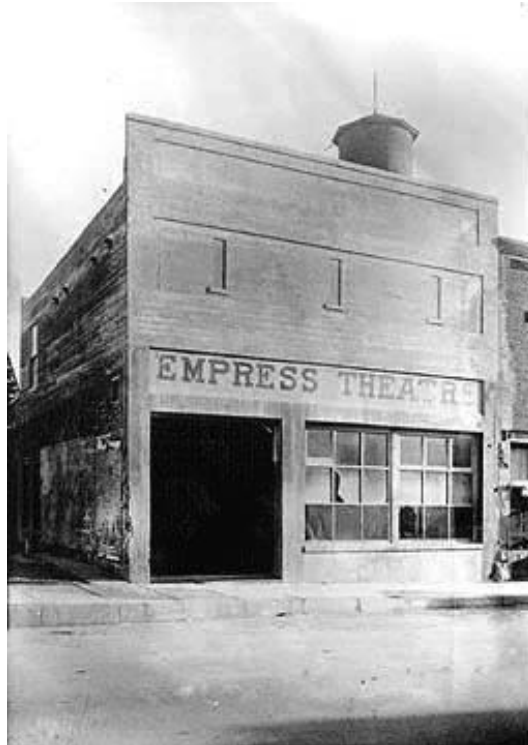

Orpheum Theater, ca.1916

Flagstaff, Arizona view looking north on Leroux Street from Aspen Street. 'Supports on the left are part of Hotel Weatherford. Bank on diagonal corner looking north toward mountains.' ca. 1916

Empress Theatre, 1918

323 N. Leroux, Flagstaff, Arizona.
Robert Bledsoe home., 1920

Post Office in Flagstaff, Arizona, ca. 1920.

Gateway sign to San Francisco Mt. Boulevard, now Schulz Pass Road, 1921

Overland-Oakland-Oldsmobile Garage at corner of Santa Fe and Agassiz Street owned by J.J. Walhaus. The building was later used by JPA Carpeteers. Photo taken, ca. 1925

1905

Coconino County Hospital for the indigent Flagstaff, Arizona, 1914

Telephone Office, 1912

Dirt road from Flagstaff to Williams, Arizona. Later became U.S. Route #66, ca.1912

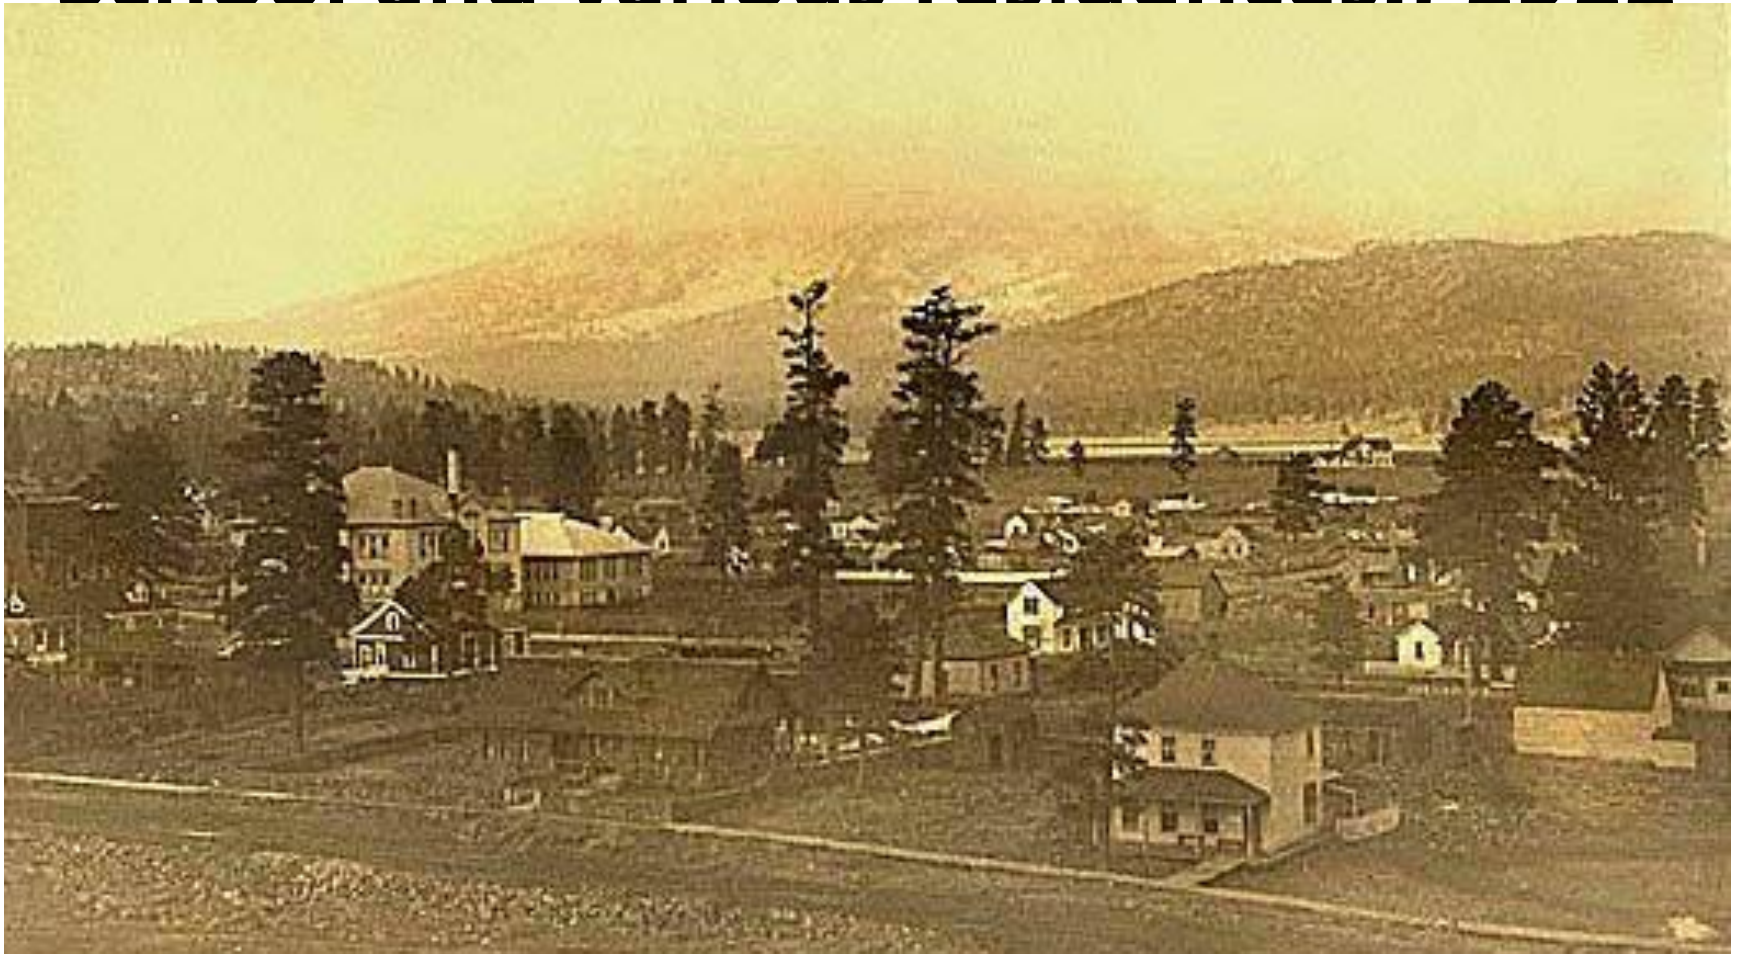

Northern Arizona Normal School Group Portrait, 1912

Aubineau Bros. Fancy Groceries store at the corner of Leroux and Santa Fe Streets.. 1912

North from near the train tracks and Humphrey's Street showing Emerson School and various residences.. 1912

[Women's Basketball with coach., 1912

Additional suggestions:

pictures not found

- Sawmill/Day's Inn
- Chantes/Safeway (Stanfield)
- Killip
- South Beaver
- Sawmill/New Frontiers
- Route 66 Park Site corner of East Route 66 and Fanning
- Old Route 66 passage through the 5 Points neighborhood (Mike's Pike and Milton)
- Old Weatherford Road Route (including the fee collection shack) from 180/Schultz Pass road
- Cheshire before it was developed
- The Hanging tree/cemetery (across from the Adult Center)
- The Francis Short Pond in Thorpe Park before it was an actual pond
- Wal-Mart area before that development
- Picture Canyon before the El Paso Gas Company and the Wildcat Waste Water Treatment Plant.